GENERAL REMARKS

The total roll-call stands at 369. In recent years there has been a gradual decline in enrolment, mainly at primary level. This decrease in class numbers gives better conditions for closer and more efficient teaching so that some provision can be made for the big number of migrant boys who attend this school. The spirit of the student body is very sound. There is an atmosphere of satisfaction and order conducive to healthy study habits and a favourable impression is gained from the friendly and manly conduct of the boys.

In the primary dept. all aspects of the curriculum are well covered with emphasis on basic needs. Oral and written English is on the weak side in
